

Would you like to be acknowledged as a world class call centre professional?

Of course you would! So what are you waiting for? Here's how you can do it...

The Call Centre Management Association awards, now in their 13th year, take place in April 2008 and we want nominations from Call Centre managers, Team managers, Help Desk Managers, Training/HR Managers and Forecast/Planning experts for these prestigious, world class awards.

The CCMA awards recognise those people who are working to make their Call Centres professional and at the front of the industry. Our awards are unique, - the winner of the Call Centre Manager of the Year award not only receives recognition across the UK profession but we will fly them, all expenses paid, to the Global Call Centre Forum to be recognised and applauded for their achievements in front of Call Centre managers from across the globe. Supported by the Association, the winner will represent the industry on stage at the Global Call Centre Managers Awards along with other winning Call Centre managers from major countries all around the world.

It could be you. Excited? Now read on...
